Filing a Personal Injury Claim Against Multiple Parties

Each party who caused or contributed to an accident that resulted in the injury to another may be liable for the victim's damages. If you were involved in a multi-car pileup or slipped and fell in the parking lot of a chain restaurant, you may have grounds to file a claim against more than one entity.

Establishing Paternity in Texas Child Support Cases

A paternity test is an established, legal method of determining child paternity for reasons of visitation rights, custody or child support. There are other methods that may establish paternity. Paternity of your child should be established immediately before you lose your right to child support from the father.

The 3 Texas Motorcycle Laws Every Biker Should Know

Texas statutes include laws for every type of vehicle on the road, including specific laws for motorcycles. If you are a motorcycle rider, make sure you learn these laws to save yourself from future traffic citations and help avoid accidents while on the road. Read more >>>

Your Options When Divorce Seems Unaffordable

As you contemplate divorce, you will have many financial questions on your mind. Can you afford to support yourself without your spouse? Can you care for your children financially? Can you even afford the divorce process itself? There are ways to get help from non-profit agencies, attorneys and religious centers. Read more >>>

Recipe of the Month

We're well into blackberry season, and what better way to serve up this dark, rich berry than with a crisp cobbler topping? The best part is this dessert can be made with fresh or frozen berries, so if you stock up during season, you can freeze and enjoy blackberry cobbler all year long! Get the recipe here.
