Children's Personal Injury Claims in Dallas

A child injury is traumatic for not only the victim, but also for their family, especially their parents. Because children cannot file a personal injury claim on their own behalf, a parent or guardian must do so for them in order to recover compensation for their damages and losses.

Dividing a Business in a Divorce in Dallas

When you were partners both in marriage and in business, the end of the former can also mean the end of the latter. Married couples with joint business assets have several options to handle those assets during a divorce, and some may favor one spouse over the other.

Recipe of the Month

As the weather turns chilly, it's always nice to cozy up with a hot drink. This Apple Pie Spiced Cider brings together the flavors of warm apple pie in a soothing hot drink that's perfect for the kids but can be spiced up for adults with a splash of brandy.

Dallas December Events

December 2-15: Gingertown Dallas (<http://www.northparkcenter.com/promotions/northpark-5thannual-gingertown-dallas>)

NorthPark Center mall hosts its 5th annual Gingertown Dallas exposition showcasing amazing works of edible gingerbread art! The live building competition will be on December 2 from 5 to 9 p.m. Proceeds benefit the Children's Craniofacial Association and shoppers can view the amazing creations on level one of the mall near Nordstrom through December 15.

December 18-21: Jangled (<http://tickets.turtlecreekchorale.com/shows/jangled/info/2>)

Turtle Creek Chorale is back with its annual holiday concert. The Dallas City Performance Hall will swell with the melodic and festive sounds of the Chorale as they help patrons rediscover the true spirit of the holidays and celebrate the magical winter season.

December 26: Zaxby's Heart of Dallas Bowl (<http://theheartofdallasbowl.com/>)

College football fans, rejoice - the holiday bowl games are here! The Cotton Bowl will explode with school spirit as two top college teams collide. Come early to tailgate and stay late to celebrate (if your team wins, that is!).
